

HILMA S. PRATHER

Hilma Skonberg Prather of Somerset is a retired elementary teacher and principal. She is a graduate of the University of Kentucky, with graduate degrees earned from Eastern Kentucky University. She has served on the school council at her children's high school, as vice chair of KET's Board Authority, as co-chair of the Governor's School for the Arts Advisory Board and as a member of the Council on Postsecondary Education's (CPE) Committee for Equal Opportunities. Ms. Prather is a former member of the CPE, the Somerset Architectural Review Board, the Somerset Community College Advisory Board, the Lake Cumberland Performing Arts Association (past president) and the Pulaski County YMCA board of directors. She and her husband, John, have two children, Hunt and Anna.